

Heaven's Gate

This song was inspired in part by the parable of the king who decided to hold a banquet and invited many to attend... (Luke 14:15-24) The song starts quietly, builds, and gets very loud at the end! A good closer, and well-suited to a more guitar-driven style.

(1st time instr.) You must be - lieve Him; You must re - ceive Him.

Do you know Him? Do you love Him? And

Heav-en's gate is o - pened wide, He's call - ing you to come inside; to take your seat in the Ban - quet Hall of the Fa-ther! And

Heav-en's gate is o - pened wide, He's call - ing you to come in-side; to take your seat in the Ban - quet Hall of the Fa-ther!

Heaven's Gate

There's a call that's going out
Across the nations,
To come into the presence of the King.
There's a call to one and all,
Each generation to
Bring a gift of worship to the King.
We will worship Him!
We will worship Him!

There's a place reserved for you
Within His kingdom;
A table at the marriage of the Lamb.
Soon the feast will be prepared;
Each invitation will
Let us come and stand before the King
Dressed in robes of white!
Dressed in robes of white!

(Heaven's Gate cont.)

You must believe Him, you must receive Him.
Do you know Him? Do you love Him?

And Heaven's gate is opened wide,
He's calling you to come inside;
To take your seat in the
Banquet hall of the Father!
And Heaven's gate is opened wide,
He's calling you to come inside;
To take your seat in the
Banquet hall of the Father!
